Grant Details

A. Purpose of the Grant

Consistent with the overall objectives of the National Plan to Reduce Violence Against Women and their Children 2010-2022 (the National Plan), this Grant will support organisations to design and deliver primary prevention programs that engage and encourage men to be positive role models in their communities and to take a lead role in preventing violence against women.

This grant opportunity responds directly to feedback from the national consultations on the Fourth Action Plan of the National Plan which highlighted the need to promote respectful relationships, and continue to support men to build healthy, safe and respectful family relationships and reject violence-supportive attitudes, and to be positive role models at home, at work, in the community, and online.

This Grant is being provided under, and these Grant Details form part of, the Agreement between the Commonwealth and the Grantee.

The Grant is being provided as part of the National Initiatives program.

B. Activity

Projects should be aligned to, and support, national primary prevention frameworks:

- Change the Story: A shared framework for the primary prevention of violence
- Changing the Picture: preventing violence against Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women and

The expected outcomes of the grant program are:

- Outcome 1. Projects will involve men to promote gender equality, and drive changes in attitudes and behaviours in their community, at home, at work or online.
- Outcome 2. Projects will address behaviours, attitudes or other social and cultural factors that contribute to violence against women and children. For primary prevention interventions to be effective, they must focus on reducing the drivers of violence against women, which include:
  - Condoning of violence against women.
  - Men’s control of decision-making and limits to women’s independence.
  - Rigid gender roles and identities.
  - Male peer relations that emphasise aggression and disrespect towards women.
- Outcome 3. Projects will be innovative and/or complement and expand on existing effective projects, frameworks and campaigns.
- Outcome 4. Projects will be impactful and measurable as the Men as Role Models for Preventing Violence against Women and their Children Grant will be evaluated to see how well the outcomes and objectives have been achieved.

Example only. The Activity will be tailored to your specific project.

- Provide training for influencers of young people who can identify and respond to attitudes and behaviours contributing to gender based violence without stigmatising them from seeking help and changing their behaviours.
- Develop and promote materials to drive changes in awareness, attitudes and behaviours and promoting positive male role models who have an attitude of respect and equality toward men, women and children.
- Increase community involvement in primary prevention through cooperation, sincere collaboration with specialist service providers and information sharing across organisations to share experiences, improve delivery of programs, and build community and organisational capacity.
