

Drought Resilience Adoption and Innovation Hubs Research, Development, Extension, Adoption and Commercialisation (RDEA&C) Project Plan

Instructions: Provide an indicative project management plan using the table below. The project plan should include:

- activities that will be undertaken to deliver the project
- information about the regional coverage and user focus, partners, benefits, and monitoring and evaluations for individual activity
- additional comments.

Application details	Response
Applicant name:
Submission reference:

Activities (please break your project proposal into at least 5 discrete activities)	Activity objective (noting how activity relates to the objectives of the program)	Outcomes (e.g. how the project will improve resilience, be influential, improve strategy development, undertake knowledge brokering, deliver extension and adoption services etc.)	Regional coverage and user focus (e.g. type of farm businesses)	Project lead and partners (including farmer, community and research groups, and consultants)	Whether delivering economic, social and/or environmental benefit	How you will monitor success	Start Date	End Date	Funding needed ($)	Other comments
Activity 1 (provide a short summary of the activity)
Activity 2 (provide a short summary of the activity)
Activity 3 (provide a short summary of the activity)
Activity 4 (provide a short summary of the activity)
Activity 5 (provide a short summary of the activity)										